

Stairs

Both the riser and the tread are made of straight planks. The individual staircase between the two is developed with a developed nose profile, which is also made of a three-layer straight planks.

Certifications

Fire performance

C_{fl}-s1

Formaldehyde emission

E1

Biological durability

1st class

Slip resistance classification

On dry: R13
On wet: R12

According to DIN 51130 standard, tested by SRT method

The products of EDELHOLZ comply to the quality requirements of the European market.

 FSC® C119075
 The mark of responsible forestry

Materials originated from responsible forest management. FSC® license number: C119075

General product data

Wood species	Hungarian oak from responsibly managed, state-owned forests
Dimensions	Classical: 40×110×1200–2100 (2400) mm Modern: 30×110×1200–2100 (2400) mm
Finishing	Same as of the flooring
Design	Top front edge with microbevel

Side panel (visible side)

Wood species: Hungarian oak from sustainably managed, state-owned forests
Same finishing and colour as of the flooring.

Dimensions: 40 x 4 mm (special size is also available on request)

Side panel (non-visible side)

Wood species: Hungarian oak from sustainably managed, state-owned forests
Same finishing and colour as of the flooring.

Dimensions: 40 x 20 mm (special size is also available on request)

Recommended products for cleaning and care

Regular, basic cleaning
ON - Woodsoap

Initial care
For detailed information please turn to our experts.