

Special diets

Dear Guests,

- Please inform us about your special diet at booking, so that we can prepare to welcome you accordingly! (Lacking notification, we cannot guarantee the special service from the first meal.)
- Please notify our chef or the substitute in the restaurant before the first dinner, and inform them if you wish a special menu beyond the half-board catering. The price of daytime meals are to be paid separately.
- In case of insulin resistance, please ask for information regarding the carbohydrate content of our meals from our colleagues.
- The extra price of the special menus are to be paid beyond the half-board catering, and applies to breakfasts and dinners.

We have set our daily offers according to the most popular demands. In case of multiple intolerances or special diets, please choose our special menu.
